

Allowing lpfm stations to take priority over current fm translators would be a serious mistake. AIR 1 has served me and our community in countless ways. It's a shame that there are not more of these stations out there, and if we know longer receive a signal, we will be losing quality programing, faith building media, and a reliable personal support system.